The theme for World Environment Day 2020 is, 'Time for Nature,'. How relevant in today's scenario when we are facing disruption in the working of our daily life all because we did not give the due respect to nature that it deserved.

The environment is one dimension of NDZ that we ensure not to overlook. Hence we have managed to make a small garden in our company space to encourage our nature enthusiasts to exhibit their farming skills. Jithin Thunery, one of our very own, has put a lot of effort into bringing the terrace gardening in NDZ to reality, and frequent bits of help from the fellow NDZians has helped our terrace garden to grow delicious and juicy fruits.

A Glimpse from our NDZ Garden.

Stay True to the Roots

Whatever we are, You and I we're children of the nature, born from the mud and sustained through the trees enjoying the perks of mother earth but ignoring the duties of a child, You see somewhere along the way humanity went astray the more we were handed out the less we felt appeased look at us now In crossroads with the choices that we made no path offers a beaming future except the one where we embrace mother nature so make right your mistake and devote yourself to nature.
